Stourport Primary School - Aspiring to Excellence

Attendance

Whole school attendance for last week based on pupils attending this term was slightly down from the week before at 97.23%, though still encouraging.

Two classes achieved a fantastic 100% - these were Rainbow (Miss Wilkins) and Elm. Not far behind in fourth place came Pine with 99.05% and just behind them in fifth place came Rainbow (Miss Ward & Mrs Collins) with 99.00% .

Very well done to all these classes. Fantastic!

School Sport Report

Already this term Stourport Primary's pupils have been representing the school at local sporting events: September 30th saw girls from Years 5 & 6 travel to King Charles School to take part in the Under 11 Girls' football. Our girls performed excellently coming 3rd out of 10 schools with notable victories against Burlish and St Johns. All of the girls played well with a great performance by Mollie Moore.

Cross Country Trials

A large group of Year 5 & 6 pupils were given the opportunity to qualify for the District Cross Country. The event took place on the Memorial Park in Stourport, again with outstanding top ten performances by: Tayah Morgan, Leah Smith, Jess Mills, Lydia Szybel, Mollie Moore, Isabel Hinton, Kyle Sheppard, Ben Rogers and Ben Jones. An outstanding first in age group for Ayla Barratt.

Great work all involved.

Head of PE
