

SPA Today for 16th December 2016

Aspiring to Excellence

Whole School Attendance: 94.04%

Winning Class: willow with 99.09%

We would like to take this opportunity to wish you and your families a Merry Christmas and a Prosperous New Year! We look forward to welcoming children back into school on Wednesday, 4th January 2017.

Attendance

Whole school attendance for last week was 94.04% for a variety of reasons. This is not as high as we would like. However amongst the classes there were some good performances.

Our overall winners were Willow were 99.09%. Excellent. Very well done to them.

In second place on 97.70% came Poplar and in third with 97.27% Elm, so well done to those two classes also.

Let us hope we can improve the whole school attendance next term as the children need to be in school as often as possible to make their best progress.
