Dear Parents/Carers

Thankyou to all the Dads that attended our Fathers' Day event on Friday. It was fabulous to welcome author Richard O'Neill to work with the children throughout the school.

Congratulations to all the Year 1 children who completed their phonics test this week.

Attendance

Last week we saw quite a few absences for various reasons. Let's see if this week we can improve as it has been a very busy week in school.

May I remind you that if your child is going to be absent from school, please remember to telephone school with the reason why before 9.30am.

Thank you

Uniform Order

Please look out for the uniform order coming home tonight with your child. The order form and payment needs to be returned by 27th June. Orders received after this date will not be ready to collect until September 2018.
