Whole School Attendance: 93.23%

Winning Class: Elm with 100%

Dear Parents/Carers

Thank you to all those who have come and supported the KS1 productions this week. We have a busy schedule next week with the Years 3-5 productions taking place and rumour has it that Santa might be visiting us...

Attendance

Whole school attendance for last school week was still very disappointing at 93.23%, which unfortunately again was mainly due to illness.

However we did have a fantastic attendance performance from Elm who achieved the maximum of 100% attendance! Brilliant! Very well done to them.

In second place came Cedar on 97.50% and in third Oak on 95.65%. Well done to those two classes.

Next week is the last week of term with lots of exciting activities in school so let us hope for a real improvement.

Christmas Attendance Bucket Treat

Pupils have come home this week with a letter regarding a Christmas cinema morning which is a reward for improved attendance. This is taking place on the last day of term. There will be a variety of PG and U rated films showing and parents need to give consent if pupils are to watch a PG film. If you are not able to reply by Monday, 17th December, they will still be able to choose from the 'U' collection of films.

There are no clubs next week due to all the Christmas festivities.

Please look out for the clubs list for the new term coming home tonight. If your child wishes to sign up to any clubs, please ensure that the form is returned by Wednesday 9th January 2019.
